DARE UK (Data and Analytics Research Environments UK)

What question are we trying to answer?

“How should a national data research infrastructure be designed so that sensitive data can be connected and analysed in a secure, flexible, efficient and sustainable way for public good?”

What are DARE UK Community Groups?

Balint Stewart, Programme Manager, DARE UK delivery team

How might community cohesion scale with size?

Prof. Robin Dunbar

www.ippl.org

<https://www.psy.ox.ac.uk/people/robin-dunbar>

Non-human primate group size correlates with brain size, the bigger the brain of the primate, the bigger the group size. So what about humans?

slido

What is the estimated number of stable relationships a human can sustain at any one time ('Dunbar's' number)?
